
Community Data 2.0: An Older Adult Perspective

Friday, August 24

8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Sarasota County Technical Institute Conference Center

4748 Beneva Road, Sarasota, FL 34233

(Corner of Proctor & Beneva – Enter off Proctor)

An exploration of creative new approaches to using community data for making decisions & taking action

Participants will:

See what Sarasota County looks like today	Share perspectives on older adult & community well-being	Learn about the Community Data Collaborative
From the perspective of older adults: Who lives where? How's everybody doing? What GOOD STUFF is here?	What qualities of life matter most to older adults throughout Sarasota County? What should we be measuring that more closely reflects what matters to you?	Find out how to get involved with this growing network of people from various neighborhoods & professional sectors, creating user-friendly data resources for the sake of positive community change

Breakfast & light refreshments will be served.
